

School District of Philadelphia

Philadelphia Middle Schools - Multiple Dates March-May 2024

One-Day

- 6-10 volunteers each date, school-based, one-day opportunity - 22 Dates (greatest need)
- Empower middle school students by introducing them to career readiness topics and developing a personal brand. Volunteers will deliver 3 workshops that includes a personal project.
- Schools - John McCloskey, Anna Day, Achieve Academy East, Henry Houston, Tanner Duckrey, AMY Northwest, Robert Pollock, Potter-Thomas, John Taggart, G. P. Kearny, Add Anderson
- Program(s) - JA It's My Future and JA Economics for Success

Philadelphia High Schools - Multiple Dates March-May 2024

Weekly

- 24 volunteers, school-based, 1x/week for 7 weeks, clearances required
- The learning experience teaches soft skills and business best practices in the context of scenarios and assignments.
- Schools - MLK, George Washington, Achieve Academy Easy, Building 21, Hill-Freedman, PennTreaty, Motivation
- Program(s) - JA Career Success

JA Inspire: STEM Series

One-Day

- 2-6 volunteers per company, school-based, one-day opportunity
- Inspire 1200 Philadelphia high school students to explore or pursue careers in STEM fields. We collaborate with partners across STEM industries to bring this learning experience to life via interactive hands-on expo booths to show the boundless possibility of their futures!
- Schools - Franklin Learning Center (April 24) - Northeast High School (May 1)

Mastery Charter Schools

JA Job Shadow - Scheduled Throughout Spring 2024

One-Day

- 8-15 volunteers, office-based, one-day opportunity
- Host a group of 10th graders from Mastery Charter Schools in a workplace site visit. JA will work with you on event design. Typically a 3 hour visit.

Chester County

Kennett Middle School - Multiple Dates April 2024

Weekly

- 5 volunteers, school-based, 1x/week for 5 weeks, clearances required
- Help introduce students to financial literacy and entrepreneurship, and to social studies learning objectives that include money-management skills and goods and services
- Program - JA More Than Money

Montgomery County

Methacton Elementary Schools - Multiple Dates May 2024

One-Day

- 4-8 volunteers each school. school-based, one-day opportunity
- This program introduces students to entrepreneurship and upper elementary grade social studies learning objectives, including regions, resources, supply chains, and problem solving.
- Program - JA Our Region

Lehigh Valley

Allentown School District - April 2024

One-Day

- 4-12 volunteers. school-based, one-day opportunity
- Conduct a Financial Literacy workshop to multiple classes throughout the day. Groups or individuals.
- Schools - William Allen High School (April 8) - Building 21 (April 12) - Dieruff (April 16)

Catasauqua Middle School - Multiple Dates March-April 2024

Weekly

- 5 volunteers. school-based, 1x/week for 5 weeks, clearances required
- This experience introduces middle school students to initial work and career readiness and personal finance concepts.
- Programs - JA More Than Money and JA Economics for Success

Remote

JA Workforce Pathways - Multiple Dates - Training Begins April

Weekly

- 40+ volunteers. virtual, 1x/week for 12 weeks - assignment begins when participant is registered
- Become a responsibility partner for a young person ages 16-21, support their goals and connect them to career experiences. Participants are recruited from rural communities and qualify based on need as defined by grant.

