

JA Rising Women

JA Rising Women prepares high school students to explore career possibilities, build confidence, and envision what's next. At the experience's culminating conference, participants connect with women professionals, expand their networks, and gain insight into education and career pathways that support long-term success.

Career-Connected Learning Experience:

- 100 Philadelphia students | grades 11-12
- 100 Women professionals
- Virtual prep sessions, a one-day conference, and a virtual reflection session
- Conference featuring career conversations, guest speakers, and a networking lunch
- Students who attend virtual sessions and the culminating conference will earn externship credit towards Act 158 requirements (Pathway V)

We welcome participants from School District of Philadelphia schools enrolled in grades 11 or 12. Students must be chaperoned by a staff member from their school to attend.

 Conference Date: October 7, 2026
8:30am-1:00pm

Location: Temple University
Howard Gittis Student Center,
1755 N 13th St, Philadelphia

Questions? Contact Annie.Blankemeyer@ja.org

